

About Cancer Survivors Day:

- The Cancer Institute will host the 27th Annual Cancer Survivors Day- Honoring, Remembering, Sharing in September 2019.
- The purpose of the event is to create an opportunity for cancer survivors, patients, caregivers, and healthcare professionals to gather in a relaxed environment and have the opportunity to connect and reunite with each other to share support.
- Anyone who is currently dealing with a cancer diagnosis, or who has dealt with or been affected by one in the past is invited to attend, along with caregivers, oncology medical professionals, family and friends.
- This year, participants can select from two dates/locations:

McDade Park, Scranton
September 21, 2019
10am – 12pm

Kirby Park, Wilkes-Barre
September 28, 2019
10am – 12pm

- The highlight of this year's event(s) will be the "Circle of Survivors" - an activity that will allow every person in attendance the opportunity to share a thought or inspirational message about their cancer experience.
- After the "Circle of Survivors," light refreshments will be served and guests will have the opportunity to interact and connect with each other.
- The event(s) will also feature a survivor's banner, survivor and caregiver ribbons & pins. A special quilt will be displayed. A program booklet will be available for attendees.
- This is a free event although pre-registration is encouraged. To register, call (570) 941-7984 or visit www.cancernepa.org. Walk-ins are also welcome to attend.
